

Community Conversations about Diversity, Equity and Inclusion

Sponsored by the City of Mercer Island and Presented by ONE MI and Do The Work MI

The MIHS Black Student Union Presents

Towards Inclusive Community

A conversation about the history of segregation and racial covenants on Mercer Island and steps we can take to build more inclusive neighborhoods.

inspired by Richard Rothstein's book, The Color of Law

We invite you to explore these informative materials ahead of the conversation by scanning the code below.

Wed Feb 2

7 PM

Please Register in Advance via link or QR code www.mercerisland.gov/communityconversations

Introduction by Claudia Balducci, King County Councilmember and the MIHS Black Student Union

Invited guests include scholars from the UW Seattle Civil Rights & Labor History Project and Monty Smith from John L. Scott Real Estate.

Conversation will be moderated by Jennifer Flood.